

Lubricate your Dollars

There are some motorists who attempt to save money by buying cheap oil. They little realize the false economy of such a practice.

Inferior and "doctored" oil may cost you from $50 to $150 a year extra. It costs real money to replace burned-out bearings. It is expensive business re-boring cylinders.

The consistent use of Socony Motor Oil is an investment in motor insurance against future repair bills.

The average consumption of motor oil per car is not over twenty gallons per year. Even if it costs an additional five cents a quart to get the genuine Socony Motor Oil, it would mean only $4 extra a year—and think of the money saved.

Insist upon Socony Motor Oil; resist spurious and cheap imitations sold for a price.

Sunshine Club

One of the pleasantest occasions in the history of the Sunshine Club occurred at Cummings Hall on July 9 when the members and invited friends met to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Kate Hammond, also to observe the 15th meeting of the Club. The day was one of the season's best, not one cloud to mar its beauty and fun and sociability ran riot both early and late. But perhaps the most interesting at the noon hour when the party numbering 38, assembled at the long table which was decorated with large baskets of roses and laden with the many nice things for which the club is noted, the fun and repast ran swiftly.

Mrs. Hammond and husband were given the seats of honor and at their right and left were seated her brothers and their wives, Thomas P. Jackson of Creswell, Oregon and Fred S. Jackson of Auburn.

As the dinner was nearing a close, Mrs. Hammond was presented with three beautiful birthday cakes, and was also the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts for which, in a very pleasing manner, she gave thanks.

The afternoon was one of many pleasant surprises. First a beautiful spray of carnations from her son, Roy Hammond, and wife of Portland, the arrival of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Shaw, and granddaughter, Eloise, of South Paris and niece, Mrs. Harold Andrews and husband of South Woodstock, who together with the club and guests united in wishing her many happy returns of the day.

53 cards and letters were received from relatives and friends.

In the evening, she and her husband enjoyed an auto ride and as they were nearing home, Mrs. Hammond was heard to remark, "A perfect ending to a perfect day."

Francis Slattery took over the mail route between here and South Paris July 1. He employs Clyde Shaw to drive for him.

Frederick T. Case of New York has been with other members of the family at their summer home here.

The public tennis court on the common is completed and now ready for use.

Mrs. Arthur Valley was operated on at the C. M. G. Hospital in Lewiston last Thursday and is making a good recovery.

Mrs. Miss Hartford of Denmark is working for Mrs. Col. Brown.

Albert Hammond, Henry Shaw and Frank Rowe are helping H. P. Hammond with his hay.

The executive committee of the trustees of the Academy building have decided to paint the cupola and front and install electric lights in the public hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hammond has the New England telephone put in their house, July 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Larose of Auburn took supper with her aunt, Kate Hammond, July 9. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Jackson, returned home with them.

The Hubbard House registration of guests last year shows 1480 names. That record will probably be exceeded the present year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scribner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shaw and Raymond and Eloise, went to Bear Pond, Sunday, having a pleasant trip.

Calvary Community Church Notes
So far the July audiences have shown a substantial gain in size over previous years. The Church School has been fortunate in having the help of representatives from Camp Hawaya and the Reverend Cassandra Sampson of Tilton, New Hampshire. At the service, July 12, Mr. Brenneker of Austin, Texas, rendered a vocal solo. The church is glad to announce that Miss Harding will sing next Sunday.

The mid-week union meetings with North Bridgton are proving deeply devotional, made particularly inspiring by the hearty singing of the great hymns of the church. The study of the constitution of Calvary Community Church is arousing considerable interest. Every one is urged to attend and learn exactly what this progressive movement is trying to accomplish.

Alfred Libby
One of the oldest citizens of the town, Alfred Libby, passed away at the Soldiers' Home in Augusta, Monday, He was 86 years, 2 months and 11 days old, and was born in this town and had all ways lived here until a few weeks ago when he went to the Soldiers' Home.

A LEGEND OF PAPPOOSE POND

In a sunny valley where birds sweet echoes make,
Through the forest glades beyond
Lies the "Pearl of Waters," a tiny silver lake
Bordered by ferns and flowers.
It lies like a gem in its emerald rim
With the high hills, just beyond
Here "Indian" legends guard the scene,
And has for ages long
Told of the child who was born
To this lake in the sunny dell.
It was long ago ere I was born,
But now the story I'll try to tell
Through I write,
"This of this lake in the sunny dell
Was said that the Indians long ago
And threw them into the lake below
When the shadows of night grew long,
On the shores of Pappoose Pond.
And it by chance the child should swim,
Next morn'g the sun had dawned,
They danced a war dance over him
In paint and feather they would gather
On the borders of the lake,
Where many a various mound
The level of the meadows break
From nearly and far
And here they sleep, where shadows creep
Sitting on the rocky shore of Pappoose Pond.
But now the legend is told
Bought by the white man's blood,
The fair green shores around
Peeps from the shade a tiny child,
Dainty and trim, with the sheltering limb
Of pine trees there.
Sending their fragrance up to him
Who lies in the sun grow in beauty fair
Around the shores of Pappoose Pond.
Pappoose, keep forever thy sweet name,
Keep thy beauty for the same
Lend thy arms to the waves be kissed
By gentle breezes, whispering fond
By glorious rainbow hues adorned
E'er filled the dale, a gleaming veil
Born of the wild, an Indian child
Beautiful, beautiful Pappoose Pond."

RECREATION IN A HOUSE ON WHEELS

T. H. Rodman and wife with a residence on Long Island, N. Y. arrived in town Friday to try the bass in Lake Penesseewassee.

They travel in a home of solid oak built on a Reo Speed Wagon chassis, and have all the conveniences in compact form. The auto cottage has two rooms provided with beds, hot and cold water, lights, kitchen equipment, ice chest, compact range, radio outfit, in fact about everything necessary for camp comfort while hunting and fishing. They have been casting the fly at Rangeley, Moosehead, Sebago, and arrived here from Haines Landing, after learning that Lake Penesseewassee is not too bad for game fish. Capt. Mel Sampson had the visitors in town during their stay.

Mr. Rodman is a noted breeder of fox hounds, beagles and setters and works almost entirely for bench shows, although he has trained many dogs for practical field work. He carries one setter named "Sister" on the breed and lacks but a few points of a perfect score. Five hundred dollars could not buy this animal.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodman are in the sport-bear game for recreation and health. They follow the hunting season South in the Fall and work North as the lakes open in the Spring. They have traveled extensively through the West and find life at least half the year in a movable cottage, is an ideal experience.

Mr. Rodman belongs to the army of radio fans. In fact the mechanical part is one of his hobbies and while shut in the car during rainy periods, he improves the hours building receiving sets, just for the fun of exercising his hobby. The seven tube set installed in the bus is his latest work.

Mr. Rodman is a member of receivers and partly finished a truck away in compartments, are waiting for wet weather. The outfit headed for New York state Saturday morning. The Rodmans had no objection but expected to visit acquaintances along the route, possibly trying another cast at Lake Sebago.

Mr. Rodman expressed a desire to return to Norway in October for Maine bird hunting.

MISS REED SHOWERED

Miss Mona Reed was given a surprise shower Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Huff, Beal street, in honor of her approaching marriage to Clarence Merrill of New York.

The room was tastefully decorated with bouquets of roses and wild flowers. Streamers of yellow and white were arranged over the table where punch was served.

A miniature bride and groom with a flower girl standing on a side table were suggestive of the occasion.

Miss Reed was introduced into the home by a clever ruse and the surprise was complete when a large group of friends made their appearance.

A musical program comprising piano selections by Miss Reed and Miss Mildred Huff was enjoyed. "Buddie" Huff and Roland Decteau entertained with vocal selections with ukulele accompaniment.

The shower of gifts was presented in a decorated parol, and offered many surprises and considerable merriment. Dainty refreshments were served with Mrs. Huff and Mrs. Frank Lovejoy, the hostesses.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Corliss, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Verrill, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Verrill, Mr. and Mrs. James Tash, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hazelton, South Paris; Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Miss Beale Bean, Mrs. Evis I. Cook, Mrs. Addie Reed, Miss Mona Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovejoy and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Huff.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hazen of St. Petersburg, Fla. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Swain.

The fishing beacon at the corner of Paris and Main streets has been placed on trial by the agent. There has been no appropriation for its purchase and the representative believing it was the time for that busy corner, has the policeman's arm in and awaiting the verdict of the meeting next March. The only expense to the town is the cost of the gas which is trifling.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Huff at Beals Tavern, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knicker, Mr. and Mrs. Helen and Mary from Manchester, Mass., are spending the summer at their cottage at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horne and daughter Rosalie of Lewiston are at their camp on Lake Penesseewassee. Dr. W. A. Drake and wife of North Weymouth are with them.

Dr. Fred E. Drake commenced this month taking Thursday afternoons for vacation and keeping at his dental work Radcliffe Chautauqua at Waterford, July 24, 25 and 27.

HIGHWAY POLICE NOMINATED

Chief Field of the State Police recommended 44 men to that department and Governor Brewster has made the appointments and these will come up for confirmation at the meeting of the council July 23. Those for Oxford County include George H. Coleman of Fryeburg for inspection, Charles Patten of Rumford, Eugene Stevens of South Paris and George Wood of Oxford for patrolmen.

EAST OTISFIELD

Mr. C. E. Holden gave her sister, Lucy, a birthday party last Saturday evening. About 40 were present and a very pleasant evening passed. Light refreshments with ice cream were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Greenleaf are entertaining Mrs. Francis Greenleaf and the children of Lewiston at "The Greenleaf" this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Greenleaf of Auburn spent last Sunday with their father, W. F. Smith.

There will be a meeting at the Grange hall in Otisfield Gore next Sunday at 2:30 P. M. Rev. E. P. Kimball, pastor.

The meeting of the Baptist church on Sunday will be at 10 A. M. the pastor's subject "The Promise Christ Makes to His Disciples." Sunday School following at 11 A. M.

Radcliffe Chautauqua at Waterford, July 24, 25 and 27.

ALBANY

Miss Dorothy Parks of Auburn played violin with Flint's orchestra at North Waterford, July 4. Many hope she will "help out" in the "Spasm", July 18. She is a student of the violin in Lewiston.

CENTRAL MAINE
POWER CO.24 Hours Every Day-
A good foundation for dividends

Stores close on Sundays, and so do banks,

The grocer says, "We have some ordered."

The merchant can shut up shop and move away,

The manufacturer may retire,

Industries close down for slack periods,

But the power company, serving all the people all the time with all the electric energy they can use, never closes down, never moves away.

And because it is serving all the people all the time with a product they are never willing to do without—lights and power—its earnings come steadily in.

Steady and adequate earnings mean steady dividends.

When you buy 7 per cent. Preferred Stock of Central Maine Power Company you know you are making an investment that has paid dividends with 100 per cent. regularity for more than 19 years. Its 75th consecutive dividend was mailed out July 1 to 12,676 partner owners.

We believe it always will pay dividends.

If you want the solid comfort that comes from a solid investment, place some of your earnings in the 7 per cent. Preferred Stock of Central Maine Power Company.

At least send in the coupon and let us mail you more details about this Company and its security.
